Ballot

That ballot takes place every two years for you to decide the officers and panel judges of the LLUK. We will hold the ballot at the end of 2010 to decide these positions for 2011/2012. To be included on the ballot in any positions, you would need to be nominated by a member and seconded by another. We need a signed nomination form to be included. These are available from Jane, the Secretary or the stand at Bradford. To stand as an officer or a breeder panel judge, each nominee should have been a member of the LLUK for at least two years (last year and this will do). To stand as an open panel judge, you don't need to be a member of the LLUK and this is designed to attract the best quality judges in the country to our panel. All members can check their set of Rules and Constitution for details of the ballot, the committee and officers and the panels. All positions are available so put on your thinking caps now and get those forms in as soon as you can. This is your club, have it run by the people you want, in the way you want. Have Your Say!!

Show Racks

Thanks to new member Dave Graham from Leeds who has successfully tracked down a new manufacturer to produce the show racks that are so useful for our lovely breed. The high quality stainless steel pair of racks are double powder coated in white. They are incredibly strong and durable and will also be kind on your rabbits feet whilst keeping the coat clean and bedding free. They are also so easy to clean after each show, to prevent contamination.

Whilst a considered purchase at £30 a set, the above should be kept in mind, as these racks are far better than the wood frame and wire ones that tend to go rusty and are practically impossible to clean. The previous manufacturer's design are far less durable, so these are a worthwhile investment as they will always be in demand second hand also!

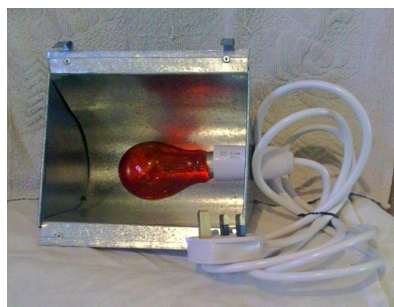

These are perfect for any long haired breed of rabbit particularly including Cashmeres, Lionheads, Swiss Fox and Angora but useful for any breed.

The Club keeps a limited stock, so don't delay, get yours today!!!

STOP PRESS Due to ill health, Heather Childs is now our temporary Secretary.

Heat Lamps

Fed up of losing those early year litters? Worried about mating up at the end of the year so as to have young stock for the early shows next year?

Well we have the answer. The LLUK are now offering Galvanized heat lamps to take the chill off a winter nest.

These practical lamps come complete with a couple of metres of cable, an electric plug, a red bulb to get you started.

Available at a normal price of £16, they are available in limited numbers from the Bradford Championship Show at a special show offer price of £14 only.
